

FELICITY DWYER

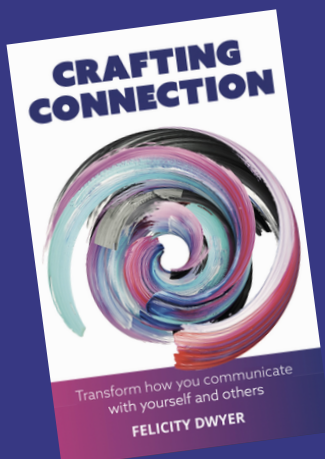

Felicity helps individuals and teams to connect and communicate, so that people feel heard and understood. Her style is warm, engaging and inclusive. With Felicity as your podcast guest, you can expect a lively conversation and practical takeaways for your listeners.

ABOUT FELICITY

Felicity is a learning and development specialist. She has 20 years' experience in helping managers and staff build better working relationships.

As a facilitator, trainer, speaker and coach, she helps people become great communicators, managers and leaders.

Felicity is qualified in numerous development methodologies and works with managers and staff across the public, private and voluntary sectors.

Author of Crafting Connection

PODCAST TOPICS

- "At my best..." Creative ways to connect with, understand and develop yourself.
- How to connect effectively with other people to build meaningful professional relationships
- Develop the skills and qualities to lead a motivated and high performing team
- Get the best out of people through coaching rather than telling.
- Deal with difficult conversations through focusing on connection
- The surprising benefits of networking, and how to build a brilliant professional network.

GET IN TOUCH

 felicity@felicitydwyer.com

 www.felicitydwyer.com